Confidentiality and Permission to Communicate Form

Please email completed form to admin@readytoyarn.com.au

We know how important it is to keep trust – and looking after your private information is very important to us. We will store your information carefully and make sure it is kept private.

There are some occasions when we, or you, may need to communicate some of your information, for example to report to the people who provide funding why you may need more support, or in rare cases, in order to get help if there is a danger to you or someone else.

As much as possible, we will discuss this with you beforehand, and make sure you are happy with the communication.

Mission Statement

Ready to Yarn exists to discover the essence of courage hidden within each of us.
We set out in partnership together, to uncover paths not yet walked and the hopes not yet spoken.

What this means for you

RESPECT: At Ready to Yarn we believe deeply in respect for you the customer
COLLABORATION: That means working 'with', not 'doing to'.
COMMUNITY: We believe in the importance of your connections, community, family.
LIFE: We believe all life deserves respect
HEALING: We believe healing takes courage, and it isn't easy.
